VERSE 1:

I always wanted a red cape on my back

I always wanted to best in my pack

I always wanted to be known to be good

To be the hero of my own hood

If I could just fly, I could save everyone

Stop all the wars, so nobody's gotta run

All the killing all the crimes pain and suffering,

its getting tougher to be buffered from it all are we gonna make it through?

is he gonna fly back in cuz if he don't come right now

I don't think good will win

Time is running out
Do we wanna wait for him
Or is it our time now
To bring the good back in

CHORUS 1:

We don't have to leap tall buildings
In a single bound
Here's a lot of good that we can do
Standing on the ground
We don't need a jet pack suit
To take us to the clouds
Its up to me and you,

VERSE 2:

The world is full of so much pain
And though I can't fly
I can do my little part here

Before I die, yeh
I may not win the nobel prize
But at least I can try
To be, a little more kind,
Spend a little more time
It might change one life, yeh..

Like...Givin a hug when somebody is down and Feeding a soul, when there's nobody around and Small things that can change the sound
And the vibe of the spirit that can change a town and Started small, Now its touched a crowd and The crowd is growing, now the word is out-that if we all do our parts we can touch the clouds without a cape and a mask, we can touch the clouds, yup!

CHORUS 2:

We don't have to leap tall buildings
In a single bound
Here's a lot of good that we can do
Standing on the ground
We don't need a jet pack suit

To take us to the clouds

Its up to me and you,

BRIDGE:

Yeh, Its The smallest things that make a difference

And all the power's locked within us

All we gotta do is find the key, and-

Turn the latch and set it free, yeh

We don't needa be fast and strong, cuz-

A kind word can go a long way

Help someone whose faith is gone

-To get-back-up and carry on, maybe-

Its too hard to understand, think its –

Too much for us to handle, but -

I promise you that you can, cuz -
You don't need to be superman

CHORUS 3:

We don't have to leap tall buildings
In a single bound
Here's a lot of good that we can do
Standing on the ground
We don't need a jet pack suit
To take us to the clouds
Its up to me and you,
